SANTA CLARA COUNTY
JUVENILE JUSTICE COMMISSION
FY 2011-2012 ANNUAL REPORT

The Juvenile Justice Commission of Santa Clara County is a state-mandated, court-appointed authority. The broad purpose of the Commission is to inquire into the administration of the juvenile justice system in the county. The Commission is dedicated to the promotion of an effective juvenile justice system operated in an environment of credibility, dignity, fairness, and respect for the youth of Santa Clara County.

COMMISSION MEMBERSHIP

Commissioners:

Pursuant to California Welfare and Institutions Code 225, the Juvenile Justice Commission shall consist of 15 volunteer citizens, two of which shall be youth Commissioners who are persons between 14 and 21 years of age. Commissioners must also be residents of Santa Clara County. At the end of fiscal year 2011-2012, the Commission was composed of the following Commissioners:

Ray Blockie, Chair
Penny Blake, Vice Chair
Raul Colunga, Secretary

Dana Bunnett
Bonnie Charvez
Stephanie Dong, Youth Commissioner
Tracy Lauth
Nora Manchester
Calixto Manriquez
Gabrielle Navarrete, Youth Commissioner
Ken Nelson
Robert Nunez
Anita Sunseri
Vince Tarpey

Commissioners are sworn to four-year terms, except for youth commissioners who are sworn to two-year terms. Over the past fiscal year, two Commissioners resigned, Vinod Mehta and Mary Ryan.

The membership of the Commission should be representative of the community and should include representation from the different geographical areas of the County. In a effort to achieve such diversity, the Commission has reached out to various organizations throughout the county and has as promoted the Commission.

STANDING COMMITTEES ASSIGNMENTS AND ANNUAL FACILITY INSPECTIONS

The Commission conducts annual inspections of the County's juvenile detention facilities and at least one group home. The Muriel Wright Inspection was cancelled due to its consolidation with the James Ranch facility. All Commissioners are required to participate in these inspections and to document their findings in written reports, which are sent to the Santa Clara County Board of Supervisors. At the beginning of each fiscal year, the Executive Committee, which is made up of the Chair, Vice Chair, Secretary and Past Chair, select the members of the inspection teams. Facilities Inspection Report Status:

The Juvenile Hall Inspection Committee began its inspection in November of 2011, and the Commission approved its final report on Feb 7, 2012.

The Children’s Receiving Center Committee began its inspection in November of 2011 and the Commission approved the final report on January 3, 2012.

The Law Enforcement Facilities Inspection Committee began its inspection of the Gilroy, Santa Clara and San Jose juvenile detention facilities in April of 2012 and the Commission approved its final report in May 2012.

The James Ranch Inspection Committee delayed the start of its inspection due to the closing and consolidation of the Muriel Wright facility into the James Ranch facility. The James Ranch Inspection was started in May 2012 and the Commission approved its final report on August 7, 2012.

GOALS AND OBJECTIVES

The following is a list of goals and objectives created by the Commission for the 2011-2012 fiscal year. The status of these goals and objectives is as follows:

1. Complete all scheduled inspections by June 30, 2012
   All inspections with the exception of the James Ranch facility were completed by June 30. The James Ranch inspection was delayed due to the consolidation of the Muriel Wright facility with the James Ranch. The final inspection did include a review of the consolidation of the two facilities.

2. Publish a status report on all inspection recommendations not later than 180 days from report publication.
   The Commission needs to develop a more structured approach to complete this goal.

3. Conduct training for all new Commissioners within 60 days of appointment.
   Training was conducted for new Commissioners in November 2011, which was done by Judge Tondreau, the Presiding Judge, and Greta Hansen, the Commissions Counsel. Two members of the executive committee also provided training on Commission procedures.

4. To monitor and report to the Juvenile Justice Commission all Incident Reports (IR’s) filed at all detention facilities inspected during the year.
   Two commissioners visit the Juvenile Hall monthly and report to the full Commission at the monthly executive session the results of their review.

5. Conduct monthly visits with minors in Juvenile Hall during which minors will be informed about the Juvenile Justice Commission and its role as advocates for minors within the juvenile justice system.
   Monthly visits have been conducted on a sporadic basis.

6. Establish workplan committees to review and provide recommendations to the JJC on juvenile justice issues.
   The Commission established five workplan committees, Medical, Education, Processes, Administration and Programs to be used for the review of juvenile justice issues and to make recommendations to the Commission.

7. Schedule regular quarterly meetings with the Board of Supervisors president to review Commission activities.
The Commission met with Dave Cortese and George Shirakawa a total of four times during the fiscal year to discuss juvenile justice issues and concerns.

8. Schedule presentations to the Commission on juvenile justice issues. The Commission had four presentations during the fiscal year, which included the District Attorney and representatives from the Probation Department.

COMMUNICATIONS WITH THE PUBLIC

In a continuing effort to make the Commission accessible to juvenile justice partners, the general public, youth served within the juvenile justice system, and the parents and relatives of those minors, the Commission has established several means to communicate with the public and disseminate information. The Commission can be contacted in the following ways:

1. Santa Clara County Superior Court website at www.sccsuperiorcourt.org/juvenile_/jic.htm; (information on this site includes the responsibilities and duties of the commission, public meeting details and achieved facilities inspection reports. Commission membership applications for both adult and youth are available on this site.);
2. Email the Commission at sccjjc@gmail.com;
3. In person at the monthly public meetings held on the first Tuesday of each month at 12:15pm in the Santa Clara County Crime Lab in the first floor conference room located at 250 W. Hedding St., San José, CA.
4. Phone the Commission at its confidential phone number 1-408-278-5993.
5. U.S. mail at Juvenile Justice Commission. 840 Guadalupe Pky. San Jose, CA 95110.
