Presentation Annual Juvenile Justice Report: Morena Cruz, Probation Department. – Ms. Cruz provided an overview of the Annual report. Although Probation supports and coordinates the efforts to create the report, it is an all System Partner’s collaboration. The report started in 2011 as a PowerPoint and became a full report in 2013. The 2018 Annual Report is a report that looks at what Santa Clara County youth are actually experiencing. Some of the data from the report comes from Probation and others come from System Partners, i.e. District Attorney’s Office (DA), Public Defenders Office (PD), DFCS and Education. This collaboration gives an overall picture of what youth are experiencing in Santa Clara County. The report takes between 6 (six) to 7 (seven) months to finalize.

The report reflected the number of youth detained and released in the last 5 (five) years has been pretty consistent. The report focused on trends, Risk & Citation Data, Youth Referred to Juvenile Hall, Admissions to Juvenile Hall and Petitions Filed. There has been an increase of 2% from years 2017 to 2018 in youth being detained. Property Crimes and Crimes Against People are the most seen. The report shows that youth of color are 17% more likely to be arrested. In 2018 there were 3,668 citations. The top reasons for those citations are Property Crimes at 33% followed by Felony Crimes Against People- which include felony assault, felony domestic violence and homicide. Other crimes are traffic violations, obstructions and resisting arrest. There has also been a 10% increase in petitions filed. The most frequent reasons are Burglary, Robbery & Car Theft. Over the course of 3 (three) years, 2016, 2017 and 2018 the numbers have increased.

The take away is that the number of arrests/citations has gone down 3% however kids detained and waiting for a hearing has gone up. With fewer kids coming into the system and getting cited nonetheless, the same youth are penetrating the system deeper. In 2018 Black/Latino youth were 5 (five) times more likely to be arrested than White youth. Those numbers are higher than what was reported in 2017. Black and Latino youth are 15 (fifteen) times more likely than White youth to be detained. From all youth who were arrested, detained, or had petitions filed, Latino/Black youth have increased those numbers. Services in the County are looking at what is happening and why they are higher in serious nature in comparison to other ethnicities.
Ms. Cruz stated there are 3 (three) zip codes with the most crimes.

- 95116- Mayfair
- 95122- Valley Palms
- 95127-AlumRock/Story Rd.

Gilroy and Morgan Hill lead in Misdemeanor/Status Offenses. All the zip codes where Felonies are happening are all occurring in San Jose, with the exception of Gilroy. This report did not include out-of-county youth because there is no specific zip code. The JAIS Assessment tool looks at the likelihood of youth recidivating as well as cross checking with the Child Welfare System to look at reports to see if any of those youth were victims of abuse and or neglect. Data has demonstrated that 48% of youth have had at least 1 (one) referral where they were the victim of abuse/neglect. In terms of who is entering into the system 78% are male and 45% are between the ages of 15-16 years old, with only 3% of youth being under the age of 12 (twelve). In regards to home life, girls are more likely to have a history of family problems.

When looking at school function, both males and females had similarities. In regards to school and intellectual capacity, 40% of boys and girls are having anti-social peers which oftentimes lead to them committing crimes with those friends. And when looking at Behavioral Health, 33% of girls attempted or thought about committing suicide in comparison to 10% of boys. 81% of girls have depression and or anxiety vs 63% of boys. The report found there are a lot of underlying issues.

Commissioner Rhoads asked if there are changes in the demographic populations. Ms. Cruz stated the report does account for demographic changes. Commissioner Thiele thanked Ms. Cruz for the report and stated she had two questions. The first was regarding “Intellectual Deficiencies” and asked for clarification as to what it meant. Ms. Cruz said it meant the youth lack cognitive ability, succeeding in school without proper support and lack of interest or having dyslexia. Commissioner Thiele then posed the question if a better term could be “Special Education” vs Intellectual Deficiencies.

Commissioner Montano asked, if the zip codes indicated were where the youth reside or where the crime was committed. Ms. Cruz responded the zip codes were where the youth resided. Commissioner Montano thanked Probation for the data and asked a follow-up question regarding suicide. Commissioner Montano wanted to know where the information originated. Ms. Cruz stated the stats came from the JAIS Assessment tool and what the youth reported back in those assessments. Commissioner Montano also wanted to know why is there no comparison to Asian youth who seem to be the greater population in the valley. Ms. Cruz responded in regards to arrests and citations for Asian youth, the data was minimal, white youth, although low in numbers compared to other youth did have some data.

Dr. Shelly Aggarwal asked 2 (two) questions; How many youth are homeless and how many are involved in the foster system. Ms. Cruz responded they do not yet know the percentages. Ms. Cruz responded DIY numbers are at a minimum, a more interesting trend to look at was whether the youth had received a referral to the child welfare system as a child. The second question asked by Dr. Shelly Aggarwal was how they assign zip codes to those homeless youth. Ms. Cruz stated the youth are put in a different category.
Commissioner Hansen thanked Ms. Cruz for informative presentation.

Department of Family and Children’s Service/Children’s Receiving Center (DFCS): Chair Hansen read the following report from Francesca LeRúe:

“Hello DFCS staff,

As most of you are aware, the RAIC serves some our most vulnerable youth. Legislative changes by the state, specifically Community Care Reform (CCR), have changed the landscape of available interventions and placement options and created more challenges. The County
Executive recognizes that this environment presents challenges for staff and youth and we have been given an opportunity to practice the “no wrong door” philosophy that the County and our three departments embrace. As a response, Probation and Behavioral Health staff will team with DFCS staff at the RAIC to provide immediate stabilization and hands-on modeling based on lessons-learned. The RAIC continues to be operated by DFCS and the responsibility of DFCS, but with support from Probation and Behavioral Health. The intent is to “staff to acuity” and for whatever duration it takes to advance the program to address the existing challenges. Probation will have two staff assigned during waking hours and possibly graveyard shifts. The three departments are working together to design a master schedule that includes staff from DFCS, Probation, and Behavioral Health. The intent is to begin this on Monday, October 7, 2019.

As informed earlier this week, with the completion of the 353 Julian building, Parent-Child Visitations have resumed at 373 Julian and we have re-purposed Keiki Center at 725 Santa Clara. The Keiki Center will serve children newly removed and other children whose needs are best suited to be tended to at the Keiki Center. Please be sure to consult with the Assessment & Placement Manager at 408-605-7287 prior to taking any child to Keiki or the RAIC.

We are very excited to be partnering with Probation and Behavioral Health in this new “no wrong door” approach.”

Chair Hansen added that the JJC will be monitoring changes in the operation of the RAIC.

Commissioner Manchester asked what the meaning of KEIKI Center?
Chair Hansen said it is a visitation center. Judge Schwarz indicated that “Keiki” is Hawaiian word for Child. Judge Schwarz explains the history of this center and the goals of this moving forward. Judge Schwarz stated the idea is to not mix these kids with kids that are already at the center who may have more challenging behaviors. In the past children were taken to the receiving center but will now go to the KEIKI center in order to provide new kids with 1:1 support. Judge Lucero asked how many kids are at the center now. Mr. Birchard said there are between 6 (six) to 7 (seven) kids all ranging in ages. Mr. Birchard said that this is a temporary arrangement.

Behavioral Health – Mental Health Services: Veronica Robles reported on the following:
