Superior Court Judges Cheer March 2 is a “Great Day for UP”

*The more that you read, the more things you will know.
The more that you learn, the more places you'll go.*

SAN JOSÉ, California (February 27, 2018): Sponsored by the National Education Association, Read Across America Day is a nationwide reading celebration that takes place annually on March 2—Dr. Seuss’s birthday. Twenty Judges from the Superior Court of California, County of Santa Clara are volunteering during their lunch hour to celebrate national Read Across America Day at this year’s sponsored school -- San Jose Unified School District’s Anne Darling Elementary School. Across the country, thousands of schools, libraries, and community centers participate by bringing together children, teenagers, and books in celebration of literacy.

Our Judges will be reading stories that were either written by Dr. Seuss, celebrate Black History Month, or give a child’s perspective into the court system. The Judges have personally selected and purchased the books which will also be donated to the school.

Judge Julia Alloggiamento, Chair of the Community Outreach Committee, “Read Across America is one of the favorite outreach events of the Court. It allows judges to share stories that educate and inspire our youth and allows our young students to recognize that judges are human beings who love some of the same things that they do – most notably, a good book and some time to read.”

Please contact Benjamin Rada, Public Affairs Liaison, for additional information about the event.
